MORNING

NOON

NIGHT

The 1952 Marionette appears as the fleeting hours of a single day. Dressed up in its finest by symbol . . . word, color, and sketch . . . the Marionette of 1952 rises to a great occasion . . . A Day at Marion College.

MARION COLLEGE

THE CHURCH'S ONE FOUNDATION IS JESUS CHRIST THE LORD

The church was erected in 1948. The committees were set up in 1936. One interesting feature was that we made our plans to build in 1947, but we got held up by the failure of our architect, and lost the entire year of 1947. Our final architect was Larimore of Ft. Wayne. He designed entirely the front of the building and choir loft. A business recession came in 1947. However, we figured that since all contracts were signed, the lower priced levels saved approximately $5000 through the delay. The ground for the church was broken early in April of 1948, and the church was dedicated in September of that year.

It is not only a building but is a symbol of reverence in the hearts of those who choose to make it their meeting place with God.

AYERS LIBRARY

The library was begun in the Spring of 1947 and was completed early in 1948. We moved the library from Teter Hall during Christmas vacation of 1947. We began using part of the building in January of 1948. The building was entirely ready for use at the beginning of the Spring term of that year except that it was not yet brick veneered.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION BUILDING

The Physical Education building was begun about July of 1948 and was completed in October of the same year. We moved the bookstore, from what is now the General Office, late in the fall, probably just in time for the opening of the winter term. The Snack Shop was installed in the summer of 1949. The recreation room was put into use sometime during the spring of that year.

GIRLS' DORMS

These three buildings, in which the girls are housed, are under the supervision of the dean and the assistants to the dean. Teter Hall can accommodate about one hundred girls comfortably. Three years ago, the first floor of Teter Hall was beautifully remodeled. Now the girls appreciate their spacious and well-decorated parlor and the guest room, which provides the happy privilege of getting acquainted with missionaries, ministers, and other distinguished visitors. Both the Annex and Baker House can accommodate about fifteen girls for those who choose the home-like atmosphere.

FAMILIAR STRUCTURES

The Ad Building is the center of school activities. It is a three-story brick structure. It contains office, laboratories, classrooms and the chapel.

Congress Hall is a two-story brick structure that serves as a dormitory for men. It is located on the East Campus.

Yea, team! Let's go! The gymnasium is the center of athletic activities for both men and women. It contains a basketball floor and dressing rooms. These rooms are fitted with lockers and showers.

WILBUR T. DAYTON, Th.D.

DEDICATION

It is with pride that we look to one of our own who has made great strides in the field of religious education. Dr. Wilbur T. Dayton, a man of wisdom and strong Christian character, came to Marion College in 1943 from Northern Baptist Seminary. He received his A.B. and B.D. degrees from Houghton College. The degree of Master of Religious Education was granted him at Northern Baptist. In 1945 he was awarded the Doctor of Theology degree from the same institution. After being at Marion two years, he was made Assistant Dean of Theology. The position of Acting Dean was given him in 1947 and Dean in 1949. He is also chairman of the committee on "Cultural and Religious Life," which sponsors the Student Conference. In connection with this, he has much to do with the work of the gospel teams. Dr. Dayton is making a tour of the Holy Land in July and August of this year. For the years of service he has given to Marion College, it is with heartfelt gratitude and esteem that this volume of the Marionette is dedicated to him.

Mr. Noggle has served Marion College for eleven years as Field Representative. As he travels throughout the Marion College area, his radiant Christian character represents well our school's spiritual atmosphere.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Mr. Baldwin has made himself known this year at Marion College as a congenial friend by the sincere and efficient manner in which he serves the college as treasurer.

Miss Clevenger, our registrar for two years, has served "beyond the line of duty" in her pleasant way. All who know her have come to admire her friendly helpfulness.

Mrs. Klaasen has been the college bookkeeper for four years. In this time she has become more and more appreciated for her faithful and untiring efforts in seeing that the office work is done.

There is much work involved in keeping Marion College progressing. To aid Dr. McConn in all the administrative functions, are the able, devoted members of the administrative staff.

IN MEMORIAM

MARY K. RUDD

Mary Kathryn Croft Rudd, the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Croft, was born into a Wesleyan Methodist parsonage in Eskridge, Kansas, on April 6, 1912. For the past several years she had been Assistant Professor of Elementary Education. She brought to her class-room an excellent background of training and experience, and not only taught successfully but took a vital interest in the spiritual welfare of her students. She has left on the campus the memory of a godly, consecrated life expended in behalf of others. During her service on the Marion College Faculty, she was married to George Rudd of Laconia, New York.

Mary Rudd was known throughout evangelical circles as the composer of both words and music of six gospel songs published by Homer Rodeheaver and entitled, "Songs by Mary K. Croft."

On the morning of November 20, 1951, Mrs. Rudd passed away. She had lived a full, influential, and devout Christian life not to be forgotten by Marion College.

MORNING

As the clock strikes six we begin the day, just any day, by first meeting God in morning devotions. It is here in the dew of early morning that we gain strength for the day. We quickly dress before the ringing of the breakfast bell. After breakfast, alert minds jump from class to class.

SENIORS

As we seniors press our drab gowns and untangle our tassels, we wipe away tears prompted by hearts filled with memories. The profitable years at Marion College have swiftly drawn to a close. These have been precious years in which we have made life-time friends. As we face the future—the field of Christian service for some, the field of teaching for many, and the field of further training for others—we go out, "leaning on the everlasting arms."

SOPHOMORES

We press toward the mark—with one year of college behind us, we as sophomores have taken our place among the "well-informed" in the ways of campus life. With our hearts filled with courage we march on with spirited enthusiasm.

We take Christ as our captain and with Him there is no defeat.

FRESHMEN

With each new school year something new is added—the Freshman Class. So, here at Marion College, as usual, at the beginning of this school year a new group of students was enrolled into the student body. Now that we have accustomed ourselves to the campus, its buildings, and its inhabitants, we feel at last that we are a part of her. The activities of the first few weeks were too soon over. We surprised the school, including ourselves, by defeating the mighty Sophomores during initiation. With this victory in our minds, we began college life in earnest. As the years continue to roll by, our prayer is that we might ever be faithful stewards of the Lord, proving that "Christ is in all."

CLASSES

7:30

Student's in Dr. Dodd's 7:30 English Literature class rose early in the morning to interpret the philosophies of English literary masters.

At 8:30, students in Dr. Bowman's History of Civilization class studied civilizations of Ancient Greece, Rome, and Europe as the origin of our present civilization.

CLASSES

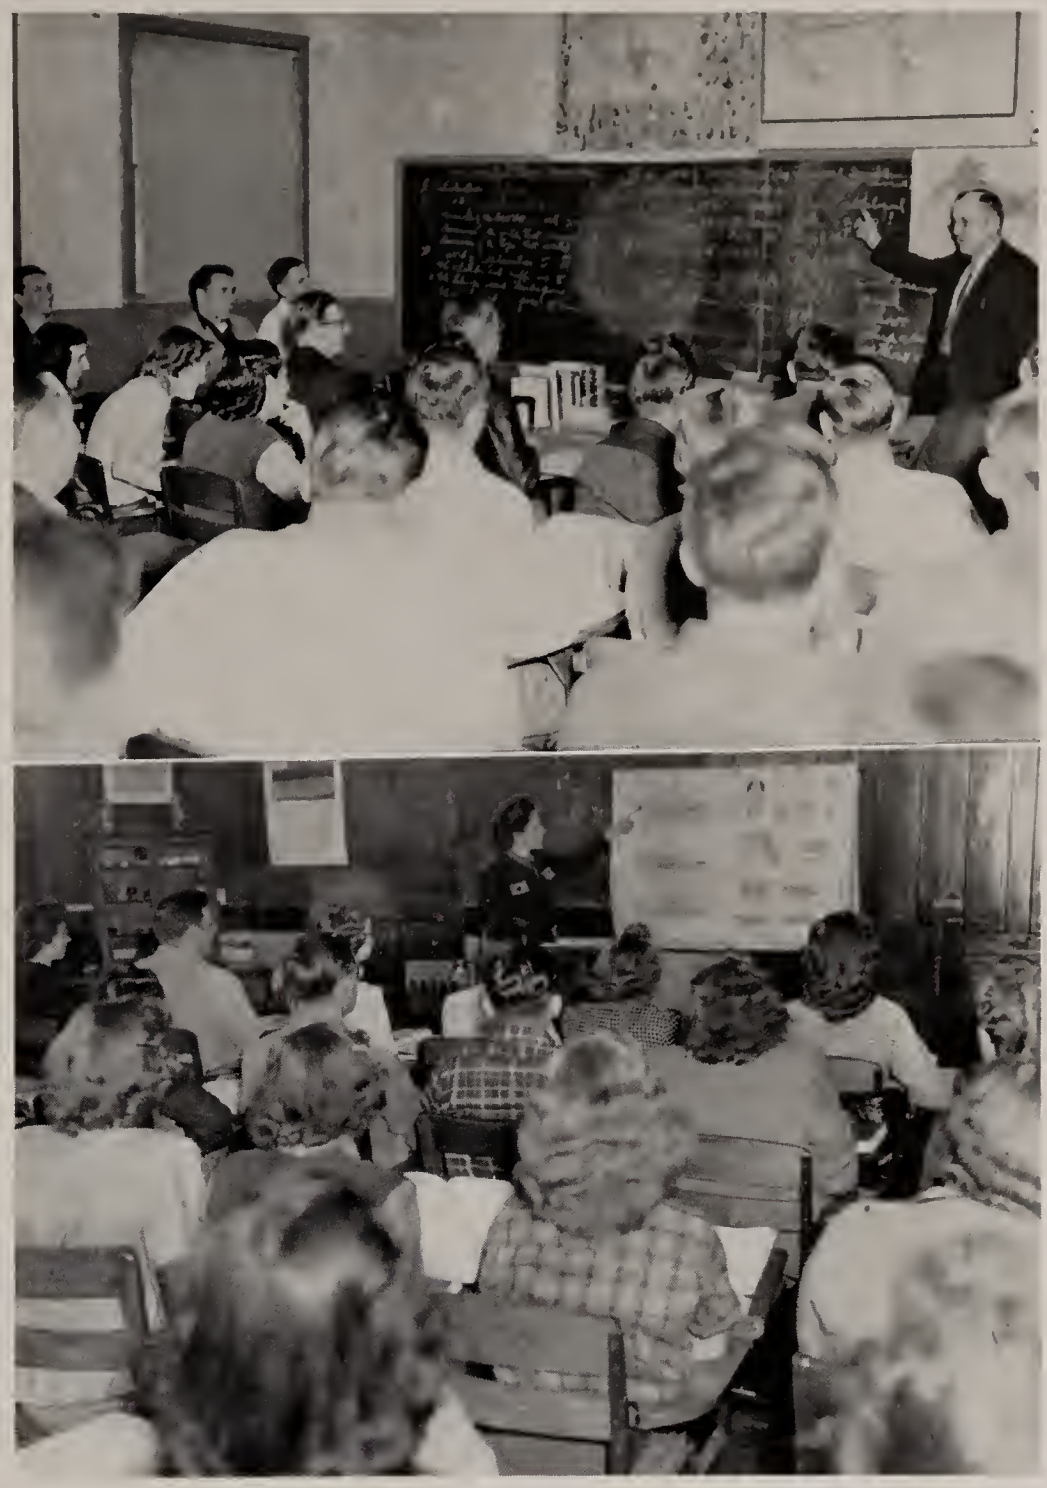
Professor Carter's 10:10 class in Pauline Epistles made notebooks and comprehensive charts during the term for their study of Galatians, I and II Thessalonians, and I and II Corinthians.

11:10

Members of the 11:10 Biological Survey class occupied their class periods studying plants and animals, writing answers for "spot quizzes," and wondering what would be served at dinner.



CHAPEL 9:30

Every morning at 9:30, students gather for chapel. Several times during the year, Rev. Royal S. Woodhead, pastor of the College Church and the College Chaplain, gives the chapel address. He has become a real friend to the students by his helpful friendliness and his willingness at any time to council with them.

NOON

After sitting intently through the morning classes, the students go to dinner. Many eat in the dining hall and others at the Snack Shop. Since the bookstore is across the hall from the Snack Shop, many will stop in. To be sure, there are still some afternoon classes, but they soon release the student to those extra-curricular activities of the well-rounded college life.

R. S. Nicholson is the son of Dr. Roy S. Nicholson, President of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection. While attending Marion College, R. S. and Mary Pat felt definitely called to Japan as missionaries. The students of Marion College wanted to send a missionary out to a foreign field, so R. S. and Mary Pat were chosen. They have organized a chapel in Tokyo, and are now moving out farther. During the time that they have been there, a six-member gospel team has been organized to preach in the rural areas and out in the mountains. During the summers R. S. and Mary Pat hold Bible Schools and Camp Meetings. According to the last report received, the meetings were being attended by hundreds. Their first term will be up in 1957.

Let us all back R. S. and Mary Pat with our prayers and our pledges.

AMPHICTYON

Leading the athletic field this year were the Amphics in their traditional colors, brown and white. With competence and zeal, they entered into all the school activities. The society was led by Jack Ott, pres.; Harry Connor, vice pres.; Wilberta Marsh, sec.; Elizabeth Norman, treas.; and Dr. DeVol, sponsor. Winter term pres., Raymond Jaycox. Spring term pres., Robert Zuhl.

EUREKAN

The Eurekan Athletic Society may be recognized on the campus by its green and white colors and the symbol of the torch. Their first success of the year was achieved on Rush Day when many new students made Eureka their choice. The society chose as their officers: John Heavilin, pres.; Dale Benedict, vice pres.; Betty Hicks, sec.; Alice Bowman, treas.; Dr. Bowman, sponsor. Winter term pres., Dave Robertson. Spring term pres., Wilma Baker.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council has two aims: to secure a closer relationship and better understanding between the faculty and students, and to assist in the supervision of student activities. Student membership in the council is determined by election of one representative for each class, the president of each class by virtue of his office, and the president of the council. The faculty is represented by the two social deans.

I. R. C.

The International Relations Club keeps the students informed of current events and world problems through group discussions and by bringing outstanding speakers to the campus.

Officers: Bowman, pres.; Wakefield, vice pres.; Wiggins, sec. and treas.; Bowman, sponsor.

Y. T. C.

The Youth's Temperance Council has as its purpose, promotion of interest in the problems created by the use of alcoholic beverages and work for moral reform.

Officers: Plunkett, pres.; Loeffler, vice pres.; Kissling, sec.-treas.

PHY. SCIENCE CLUB

The Physical Science Club has brought to its members a broader knowledge and deeper interest in the fields of physics, chemistry, and mathematics.

Officers: Taylor, pres.; Fisher, vice pres.; Keith sec.-treas.

"BIO" CLUB

The Biology Club is to create an interest in the biological sciences. Audubon Screen Tours were presented again this year by the "Bio" Club and the National Audubon Society.

Officers: Nesbitt, pres.; Heavilin, vice pres.; Hicks, sec.-treas.

SPANISH CLUB

Through several activities the Spanish Club has encouraged a greater interest in the Spanish language, in the Spanish-speaking people, and in Spanish practices. The officers for this year were Janice Ragon, pres.; Donna Bahr, vice pres.; Polly Loeffler, sec.; and Paul Titus, treas.

FRENCH CLUB

The purpose of the French Club is to create a lively interest in the French language, people, and customs. The membership is composed of all interested students who have taken at least one year of French. Officers: Malcolm Ellis, pres.; Martha Heavilin, vice pres.; and Betty Stevens, sec. and treas.

The Senators and Representatives are the distinguished young men who make their home at Congress Hall and add cheer to the college campus. They sponsor the Easter Breakfast held on Palm Sunday.

S. A. R.

The Council of Cheerful Comrades creates a cheerful atmosphere among the girls on the campus. It sponsored again this year the Christmas, Valentine, and Birthday Dinners.

C. C. C.

"M" CLUB

The "M" Club is responsible for regulating inter-society athletics and setting up rules governing the winning of the athletic letters. The officers are: David Spargo, pres.; Fredrick Sumwalt, vice pres.; Evelyn Sheets, sec.; Donna Bahr, treas.; Miss Elder, advisor.

F. T. A.

The A. Jones chapter is a local unit of the "Future Teachers of America." This is a national organization composed of students who are planning to make teaching their profession.

The officers are: Phyllis Wilson, pres.; Helen Gustin, vice pres.; Lois Blanchard, sec.; Raymond Sigworth, treas.

ART FORUM

"Simplicity is the key-note to all beauty," is the motto of the organization to build up the necessity and appreciation of art and the Art Forum. The activities of this year were led by the president, Garner Heasley, under the sponsorship of Miss Linn. Lois Harding officiated as vice pres.; Beulah Calbreath, sec.; and Harry Connor, treas.

GERMAN CLUB

Through several activities the German Club seeks to maintain among its members a lively interest in the German language and people.

Officers: Emrick, pres.; Bowersock, vice pres.; Hale, sec.-treas.; Buchen, sponsor.

The office desk that was always locked . . . the "dummy" that was never opened (any resemblance to staff members is purely coincidental) . . . the secrets that many wished to know, are all a thing of the past, and as a result: YOU have YOUR 1952 MARIONETTE! The "No" of the Editor . . . the "Never" of the Business Manager . Burning of the midnight oil . . . Headaches . . . Chewed-off fingernails and our scholastic standard (?) lowered, is enough reason for the epitaph on the office door, "We don't live here anymore!"

We have tried in these pages to give you a picture of a day at Marion College. It is, we realize, incomplete in many respects. We hope that in the future you will remember and cherish just such a day and this book. But greater than this, we hope and pray that this book will glorify the name of the Christ for which Marion College stands.

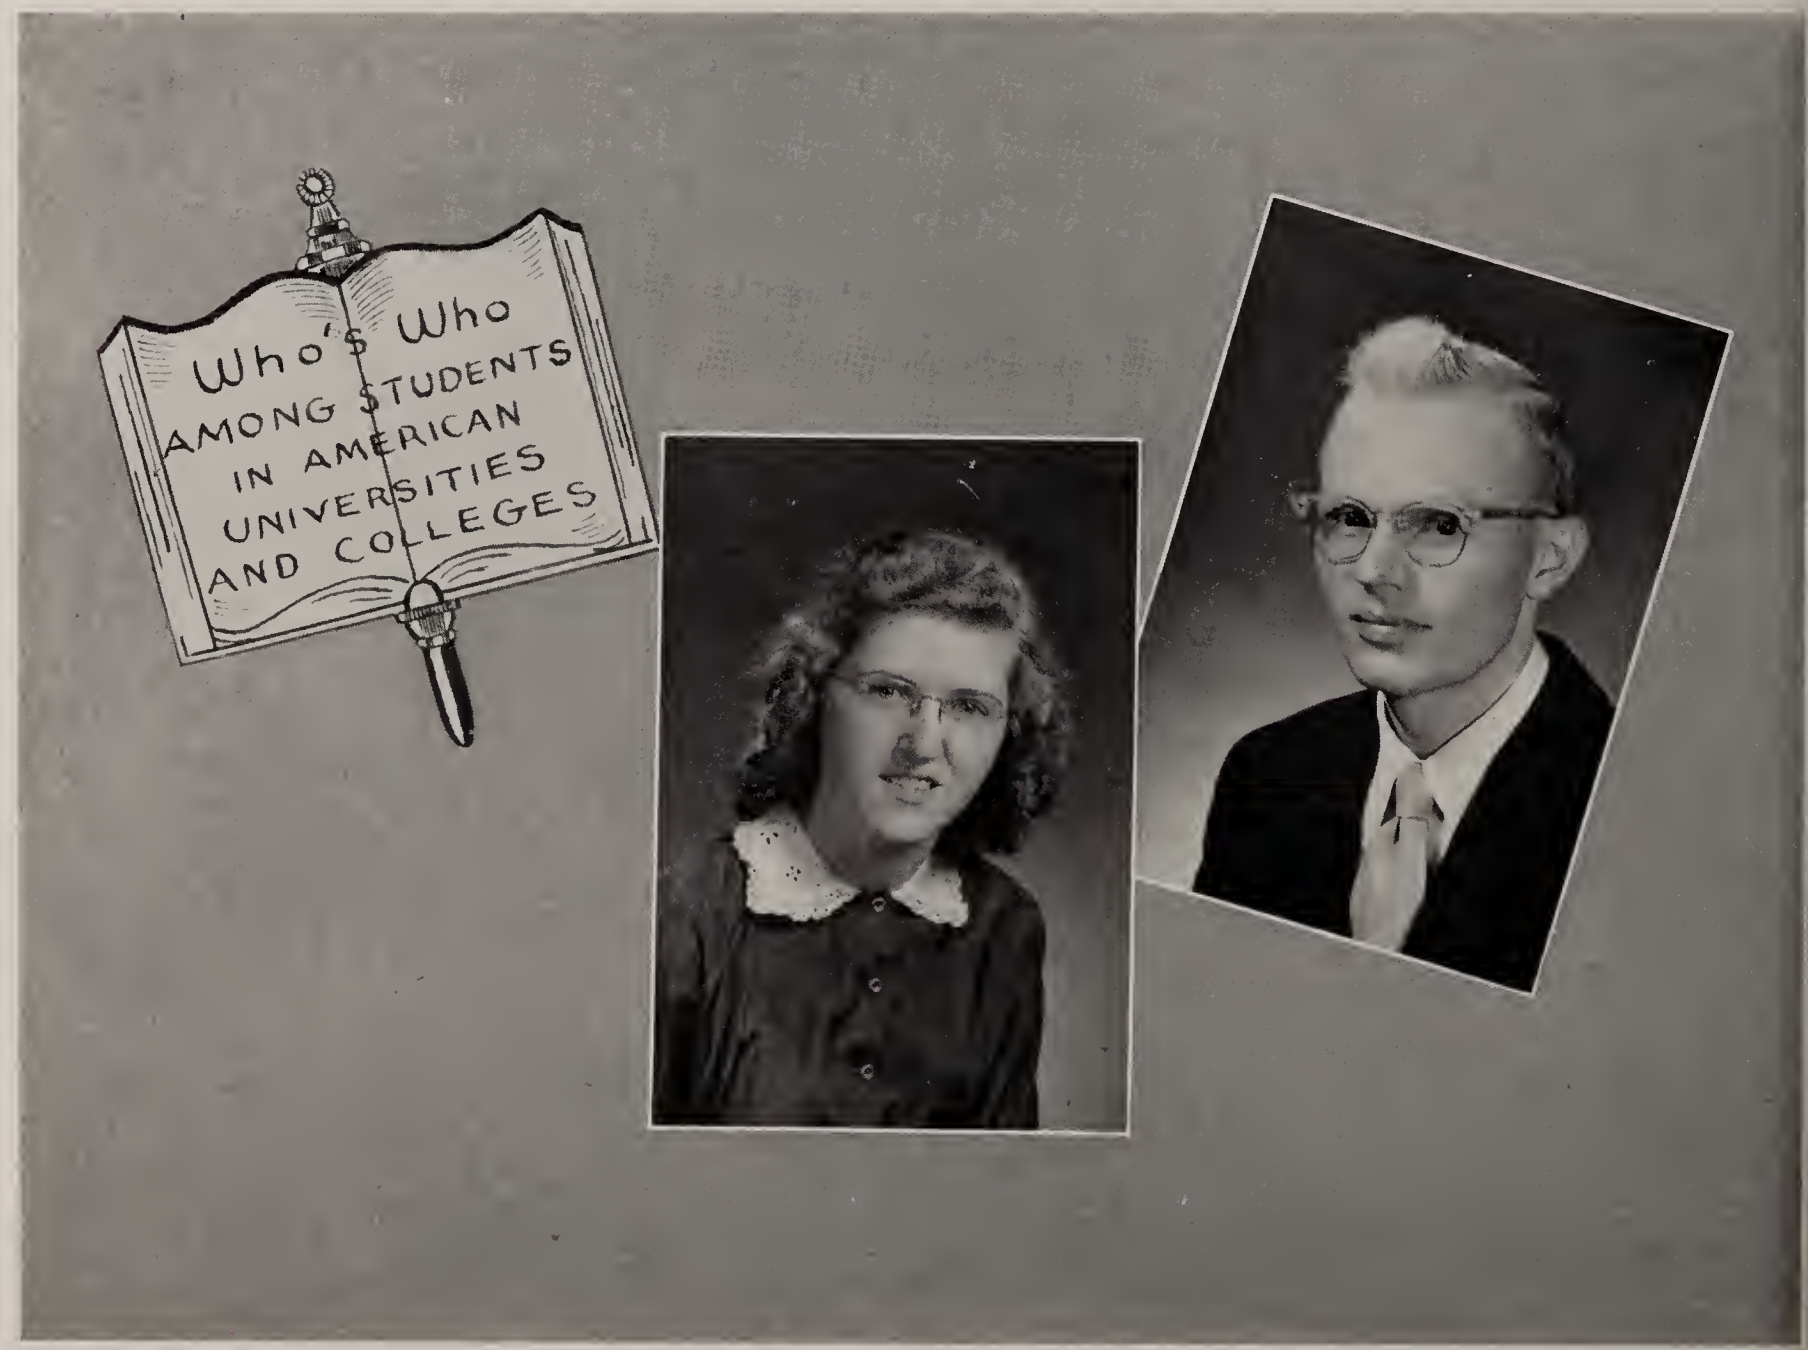
WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS

The nominees for this honor were suggested by the Student Council and a Faculty Committee. The candidates were then voted upon by the members of the faculty and later were approved by the National "Who's Who Committee."

MARGARET DeVOL is characterized by her versatility, dependability, and deep spirituality. She has maintained a high scholastic record. During her four years at Marion College, Margaret has served as president of the F. T. A., president of the C. C. C., vice president of the F. M. F., treasurer of her Junior Class, Student Council Representative in her Freshman and Sophomore years, and Treasurer of the Student Council. Margaret has also found time to be a member of the Violin Trio, a member of a Gospel Team, and Children's Home Evangelist for the Student Conference.

WESLEY SIME, who throughout his four years at Marion has shown his capabilities for leadership, is from Mina, South Dakota. He has served as the treasurer of his Sophomore Class, president of his Junior Class, and treasurer and president of the Student Council. He has also found time in his busy program to be on a Gospel Team and to sing in the A Cappella Choir.



IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

ALICE BOWMAN, also worthy of this honor, has been active in the French Club, the Student Council, and the I. R. C. of which she is now president. Alice is a loyal Eurekan, having filled the position as secretary of this society and having won herself a letter for playing basketball and baseball for the Eurekan Society. For the past three years she has served as assistant for Miss Moshier.

JAMES WILSON has sung his way into the hearts of everyone at Marion College. Jim is from Brockville, Ontario, Canada. He has been a member of the A Cappella Choir, president of the Musicae and at present is a member of the Varsity Quartet.

EVELYN SHEETS is a musical Hoosier who has made for herself a very definite place on Marion College Campus. In her Freshman year she was elected as secretary of her class. She has also been a member of the "M" Club, A Cappella Choir and secretary of the Musicae. At present she is a reporter for the Journal, vice president of the Musicae and a member of a Gospel Team.

First row: Paff, Gray, Bahr, Miller.

Second row: Foster, Backa, Hunt, Burch, Norman.

EUREKAN

First row: Jaycox, Taylor, Fisher, Miller.

Second row: Otto, Brannon, Henry, Zindel.

WOMEN'S SOFT BALL

The chilly November winds forbade the Girls' Softball teams to finish the 1951-52 series. The Eurekans were in front, however, with a 17 to 3 win over the Amphics in the only game played.

NIGHT

Darkness curtains over the work of daytime and the students turn to evening for fleeting moments of pleasure and profit. On Tuesday evenings the students meet in the Chapel for Student Conference, a period of fellowship and devotion. The library and practice rooms are in a state of constant use, for the preparation of daily assignments. Some of the girls talk over their problems with Miss Waters. All too soon it is 10:30 and time for another busy day at Marion College to be tucked into bed.

SPIRITUAL GROUPS

The Foreign Mission Fellowship, Student Ministerial Association, and Student Conference are groups on the campus, which are for the purpose of enlarging the missionary vision, enhancing Christian fellowship, developing future ministers in character habits and attitudes, and sponsoring gospel teams and prayer meetings.

"Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice; for the Lord will do great things."

We rejoice that God did not pass over Marion College. We know what it means to experience a real revival, and His glory is continuing to rest upon us, and is manifesting itself in our service for Him. Rev. O. G. Wilson of Syracuse, New York, was God's messenger for our Fall Revival; and through the simple ministry of the Word, the Holy Spirit wrought deep conviction. Dr. D. Willa Caffray of C. E. I. University, Park, Iowa, was our missionary convention speaker. For Youth Week services, Orval Butcher of Stevens Point, Wisconsin, was our song evangelist and Rev. David Rees our evangelist. There were groups and times of testimony, confession, and song in the dining room. This is but the beginning! God has promised to pour out His Spirit upon us in the last days! We believe God!

COLLEGE CHORUS

The Marion College Chorus is an organization made up of both college students and people of the community drawn together by a desire to sing for the glory of the Lord. During the Christmas season the group presented Handel's "Messiah;" Maunder's "Olivet to Calvary" was given on Palm Sunday.

COLLEGE CHOIR

"To Thee We Sing." To sing the praises of our Lord is the primary purpose of the Marion College Choir as it goes out to represent the school. The choir is composed of a selected group of twenty-eight students, under the direction of Professor Baker.

Third row: D. Dawalt, H. James, P. Stoddard, B. Medows, A. Newby, T. Donaugh, J. Heavilin, W. Sime, W. Smith, J. Ott, K. Brown, R. Curtiss.

First row: N. Beyler, W. Baker, E. Norris, J. Freeze, J. Day, H. Baker, C. Sprunger, M. Neaderhiser, J. Hobson, S. Callender.

VARSITY QUARTET

The varsity quartet is composed of members of the student body who are selected on the basis of Christian experience, character, and musical ability. The members of this year's quartet are: first tenor, Dale Benedict, Marengo, Ohio; second tenor, James Wilson, Brockville, Ontario, Canada; baritone, Dave Robertson, Erie, Pennsylvania; bass, Roland Conley, Bay City, Michigan. This quartet traveled in extension work in the interest of Marion College in the summer of 1951 and the following school year. The quartet traveled in nine states during the summer and school year and sang in churches, camp meetings, youth rallies, and also at General Conference. In the words of their theme song the boys express the reason they are able to sing the praises of Christ. The reason is this—one day they found that—

In the book 'tis written,

Oh, the joy that came to my soul

Now I am forgiven and I know

By the blood I am made whole.

THE SOLDIER'S PSALM

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in Him will I trust.

Surely He shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with His feathers, and under His wings shalt thou trust: His truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day.

Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For He shall give His angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honour him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Psalm 91

EVENING . . . AFTER A LONG, HARD DAY

TEN-THIRTY . . . LIGHTS OUT . . . NOW THE FUN BEGINS

"We thank Thee, Lord, at the close of another day for Thy guiding and protecting hand over us.

Ten-thirty . . . lights out . . . a long, busy day has ended.

Each member of the staff has endeavored to the best of his ability to produce a yearbook which will please and glorify Christ.

We hope you enjoyed the day . . . Good-Night!
